Give me freedom or face consequences, says Sidhu

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Chandigarh, 27 August

Punjab Cong chief Navjot Singh Sidhu's advisor, under fire over his controversial comments on Kashmir, quit on Friday

In what could be seen as a dare to the Congress high command, newly appointed Punjab unit president Navjot Singh Sidhu has asked it to allow him the freedom to take decisions or he will give a devastating reply.

Sidhu said he didn't want to remain just a "show horse".

He made the remarks on Thursday at a meeting with industrialists and traders in Amritsar, amid the continuing tussle with Chief Minister Amarinder Singh ahead of next year's assembly polls.

A fallout of the tussle was the resignation on Friday of Sidhu's adviser Malvinder Singh Mali after his controversial remarks on the Kashmir issue. The party leadership picked the cricketer-turned-politician a few weeks back as the Punjab Congress chief, ignoring opposition from Amarinder Singh. But the two camps in the state Congress have not yet called a truce.

Addressing a trade and industry association, Sidhu said he will ensure that the Congress remains in power in Punjab for the next 20 years.

"But if you don't let me take the decisions, I will also ensure total devastation," Sidhu said in Punjab, using the term "tit naal tit bhi khad-kavunga". He added there was no point in being just a show horse (darshani ghoda).

Floortest
Later in the day, Opposition parties, including the AAP and SAD, asked the Amarinder Singh-led government to prove its majority in the Assembly.

Amid tussle, Baghel meets Rahul Gandhi

Amid an ongoing power tussle in the ruling Congress in Chhattisgarh, Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel met Rahul Gandhi at the latter's residence on Friday for the second time this week. This is the Chhattisgarh chief minister's second meeting with Gandhi this week, as the two had met earlier on Tuesday. Chhattisgarh Health minister T Singh Deo on Tuesday. Both Baghel and Deo had also met AICC general secretary (organisation) KC Venugopal on Wednesday, amid talks of a leadership change.

SKM calls Bharat Bandh on Sep 25

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, 27 August

The Samyukt Kisan Morcha, spearheading the anti-farm laws protests, on Friday called for a 'Bharat Bandh' on September 25. The SKM said the move is aimed at further strengthening and expanding the farmers' agitation which completed nine months on Thursday. Addressing a press conference, Ashish Mittal from SKM said, "We are calling for a 'Bharat bandh' on September 25. This is happening after a similar 'bandh' was organised on the same date last year, and we hope that it would be more successful than the one last year which was held amid the pandemic." Mittal, who was also the convener of the all-India convention by farmers that concluded on Friday, said the two-day event was a success, and saw the participation of representatives from 22 states, of not just 300 farm unions but also members of organisations that work for the welfare of women, labourers, tribals as well as youth and students.

OTT...

That takes the total paying population to 96 million. Think of it as going to the theatre. More than a billion tickets were sold in India in 2019, but that doesn't mean a billion people saw a film. The average filmgoer paid for 3-4 tickets in a year. The third set of findings is on the demographic cuts. The report breaks up the OTT universe into four segments: The paying OTT subscribers (11.7 per cent), the non-paying OTT subscribers who consume paid content (49.8 per cent), the ones who watch only advertising-driven content (44.9 per cent), and the ones who watch only YouTube and social media videos (23.8 per cent).

All four segments have a male and urban skew, which is most pronounced in the SVOD (paying) segment. In contrast, the AVOD and YouTube + Social Media only segments are heavily present in markets with a population of less than 1 million and in rural India. Maharashtra is by far the leading state for the SVOD (paying) segment, followed by AP-Telangana and UP-Uttarakhand.

The indexing from population to monetisation is the best for the 22-30 years age group, where 14 per cent population contributes 31 per cent of the 96 million paid subscriptions, says the report. That seems strange, given that people in the 40s and above would have better purchasing power.

"It is not an affordability issue; it is a taste issue. The 40-plus population is more linear," says Kapoor. The metros and the 1-75 million population markets contribute only 10 per cent to the total population but 24 per cent to the OTT universe. Their share of paid subscriptions is a huge 59 per cent. This, says Kapoor, highlights the opportunity available to expand the SVOD market outside the big cities.

Powell says Fed may slow bond buying by year end

The Fed cut its benchmark rate to nearly zero and relaunched the crisis-era purchase program last year at the onset of the pandemic. Powell cautioned that a move to begin winding down the bond-buying program should not be interpreted as a sign that rate hikes would soon follow. "The timing and pace of the coming reduction in asset purchases will not be intended to carry a direct signal regarding the timing of interest rate liftoff, for which we have articulated a different and substantially more stringent test," Powell said.

"We have said that we will continue to hold the target range for the federal funds rate at its current level until the economy reaches conditions consistent with maximum employment, and inflation has reached 2 per cent and is on track to moderately exceed 2 per cent for some time," he said.

"We have much ground to cover to reach maximum employment, and time will tell whether we have reached 2 per cent inflation on a sustainable basis."

Quarterly projections published in June showed seven of 18 FOMC participants thought it would be appropriate to begin raising rates next year, while six more expected rate increases would become appropriate by 2023. Powell spoke as investors awaited a decision from President Joe Biden on whether to renominate him for a second term or pick someone else.

Bloomberg reported on Thursday that Biden advisers were considering recommending Powell for reappointment. Total US employment is still about 6 million jobs below prepandemic levels. June and July were strong months for hiring as restrictions on service industries were lifted across the country, but the recent spread of the coronavirus delta variant is raising uncertainty about prospects for the months ahead. The Fed chair stuck to the central bank's message that the current bout of inflation is likely to be transitory, emphasising that the recent rise "is so far largely the product of a relatively narrow group of goods and services that have been directly affected by the pandemic and the reopening of the economy" and should be expected to dissipate. He pointed to inflation expectations measures as a sign that consumers, businesses and investors also share that assessment, and highlighted the risk that downward pressures on inflation, of the kind observed over the last decade, could reassert themselves once the pandemic ends.

"While the underlying global disinflationary factors are likely to evolve over time, there is little reason to think that they have suddenly reversed or abated," Powell said. "It seems more likely that they will continue to weigh on inflation as the pandemic passes into history." This year's symposium, typically a high-profile retreat attended by central bankers around the world, was originally slated to return to its usual in-person format, but the Kansas City Fed scrapped that plan on August 20 amid rising coronavirus case counts in Teton County, Wyoming. During last year's virtual proceedings, Powell unveiled a new strategy for monetary policy making which marked the conclusion of an internal review that lasted nearly 20 months.

The new framework dictates Fed officials allow the economic expansion to progress further than they have in the past before raising interest rates, to drive unemployment rates down faster and allow low-income groups to share in the benefits from a strong economy. That also means allowing inflation to overshoot the central bank's 2 per cent target for a time, to make up for periods coming out of downturns when it underruns the target.

₹1-trn m-cap...

"Now there is talk of divestment favouring strategic investors, who are giving better valuations to PSU majors," he added.

The Adani group has the maximum number of companies in the trillion club at five, followed by the Tata group (four).

TCS, Infosys, Reliance Industries, and Wipro saw a huge rise in their m-cap in absolute terms this year. TCS added ₹2.8 trillion, Infosys ₹2 trillion, Reliance Industries ₹1.7 trillion, and Wipro 1.2 trillion.

Kotak AMC...

Both the issuers belonged to Essel Group, which was the promoter of Zee Entertainment Enterprises Ltd (ZEEL) and some other companies commonly known as "Zee Group companies".

But the scrip of ZEEL fell sharply on January 25, 2019. Consequently, the share cover as collateral also fell below the mandated 1.50 times. However, the promoters of ZEEL at that point expressed their inability to provide additional collateral to secure the investment exposure of Kotak Mahindra AMC when the margin call was triggered.

Later, Kotak Mahindra AMC entered into separate agreements on April 6, 2019, with each of the issuers. In terms of those, it extended the maturity of the ZCNCs till September 30, 2019.

"Upon observing that the aforesaid actions taken by the Noticee (Kotak Mahindra AMC) were prima facie in violation of certain provisions of Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992, read with the SEBI (Mutual Funds) Regulations, 1996 (hereinafter referred to as 'MF Regulations, 1996') as well as various circulars issued by SEBI in this regard from time to time," said the Sebi order.

Later in its post-hearing submissions the fund house said it had subscribed to four other FMP schemes series 187,189, 193 and 194 (from the same issuers).

"The Noticee has also failed to furnish any research report or any other research inputs so as to demonstrate the factors based on which, the aforesaid investment decision was taken for the first time by the Noticee to invest in the ZCNCs issued by the Issuers," said the Sebi order.

In response to three show-cause notices dated May 10, 2019, June 12, 2019, and August 13, 2020, the noticee has said in early September 2019, part payment of investment proceeds was made to all unitholders of the respective schemes and the balance payment along with accrued interest was made on September 25, 2019.

"The SEBI order dated August 27, 2021, on KMACC (Kotak Mahindra AMC) pertains to six FMP schemes that matured in April and May 2019, which held investments in Non-Convertible Debentures (NCDs) issued by Edisons Utility Works Pvt Ltd and Konti Infrapower & Multiventures Pvt Ltd, belonging to the Essel Group and secured by pledge of equity shares of Zee Entertainment Enterprises Ltd. All the investors have been fully repaid along with applicable interest in September 2019. KMACC is committed to protecting investor interest at all times," said the spokesperson, Kotak Mahindra Group.

RBI Guv...

The central bank plans to start pilot projects involving the central bank digital currency (CBDC) "by December or so". "We are being extremely careful about it because it's a completely new product, not just for the RBI but globally," Das said, adding the central bank was evaluating the security of the digital currency, and assessing what impact it might have on the financial sector and monetary policy.

India, Aus...

"In this regard, the ministers directed officials to speed up negotiations and to meet as often as required to achieve an early harvest announcement by December 2021, on an interim agreement to liberalise and deepen bilateral trade in goods and services, and pave the way for a comprehensive agreement," an official statement said.

The negotiations will take into consideration the views of business, industry, and other stakeholders, along with consultations on potential opportunities.

Fed...

The Fed cut its benchmark rate to nearly zero and relaunched the crisis-era purchase program last year at the onset of the pandemic. Powell cautioned that a move to begin winding down the bond-buying program should not be interpreted as a sign that rate hikes would soon follow.
